Killing Eve star Jodie Comer is mathematically the most beautiful woman in the world, high-tech mapping found.

The 29-year-old's eyes, eyebrows, nose, lips, chin, jaw and facial shape were found to be 94.52% accurate under the "golden ratio of beauty" – which measures physical perfection.

Dune star Zendaya, 26, above left – girlfriend of Spiderman actor Tom Holland – was second with 94.37%.

Model Bella Hadid, 25, above right, was third with 94.35% and singer Beyoncé, 41, was fourth with 92.44%.

The results were found with the latest computerised mapping technology by Harley Street facial cosmetic surgeon Dr Julian De Silva, who uses it in his work.

He said: "Jodie Comer was the clear winner when all elements of the face were measured for physical perfection."

"She had the highest overall reading for the positioning of her nose and lips, with a score of 98.7%, which is only 1.3% away from being the perfect shape.

"Jodie also had the highest score for her nose width and length and she was near the top for the shape of her lips and the position of her eyes.

"Her chin is beautifully shaped and her overall face shape is really strong. The only element she was marked down for was her eyebrows which achieved an average score of 88%."

Other stars who made the top 10 include Taylor Swift, Kim Kardashian and Squid Games star HoYeon Jung.

According to this equation, actress Zendaya topped the scores for her lips at 99.5% and her forehead at 98%.

Supermodel Bella Hadid, who ranked third place, hit the top score for her eye position and her chin.
