Written All Over Her Face: Meghan Rated the Most Perfect Royal Beauty

Published on March 8, 2018

Represented by the Greek letter phi, the "golden ratio" is a mathematical scale of 1.618:1 and expresses the ideal proportions for an object.

Human faces that closely follow the ratio are often considered more attractive.

Cosmetic surgeon Julian De Silva applied the principle to photographs of Meghan, 36, the Duchess of Cambridge, Zara Phillips and princesses Beatrice and Eugenie.
